

CURRICULUM VITAE

Name: Jens-Oscar Nergård
Address: Ammerudveien 123 b 0958 Oslo
Date of birth: 6th February 1960

Married with two children.

Main education:

1983: Foundation level in Public Laws, Faculty of Law, University of Oslo
1989: Cand.oecon. (Master degree) at the Faculty of Social Sciences, University of Oslo

Career profile:

1991-96: The Ministry of Trade and Industry. Main occupation: reviews, establishments and amendments of regulations and rules concerning the capital market (i.a the insurance sector), small and medium enterprises, public pension funds etc

Member of the:

- Governmental Commission concerning a (new) law on lifecycle fund in relation to the Tax Act (1996-98)
- Governmental Commission concerning conditions for public pension funds (2000)

1996 - Senior adviser in the Ministry of Local Government and Modernisation.

- Case handling related to the Competition Act (1996-01).
- Responsible for the writing and presentation of the Proposition to the Odelsting No. 84 (2004-2005) On the Act relating to certain circumstances concerning political parties (Party Act)
- Responsible for the writing and presentation of the Prop. 140 L (2011–2012) Proposition to the Storting (Bill) Amendments to the Political Parties Act
- Responsible for issuing regulations and attached guidelines on all topics related to the Political Parties Act
- Responsible for the project concerning development and management of the IT- portal for political parties (2007 -)
- Responsible for the writing and presentation of the law proposal concerning The Registration of Member of the Government Economical Interests and Side Activities, Prop. 139 L (2011-2012)
- Member of the Norwegian delegation to GRECO (Group of states against corruption). (2007-)
- Evaluator for GRECO on party funding and members of parliament (2007 -)
- Participant in the project for issuing a new Election Code in Macedonia FYR (2009-10)