Luiz de Mello is Deputy Chief of Staff of the Secretary-General of the OECD. Previous to his current position, he acted as Economic Counsellor to the Chief Economist of the OECD and as Head of Desk in the OECD Economics Department, where he was responsible for bilateral surveillance activities with Brazil, Chile and Indonesia.

Prior to joining the OECD, Mr. de Mello worked in the Fiscal Affairs Department of the International Monetary Fund, where he was involved in different projects in the areas of public finances, as well as programme monitoring and policy surveillance, with an emphasis on emerging-market and transition economies in Asia, Latin America and Eastern Europe.

Mr. de Mello holds a PhD in Economics from the University of Kent, United Kingdom, where he started his career as a lecturer. His main areas of interest are open-economy macroeconomics, public finances, and growth and development issues.
